Former U.S. Attorney General Janet Reno Endorses Rick Minor for State House District 9

Tallahassee, FL – The Rick Minor for State House District 9 campaign has announced an endorsement from former United States Attorney General Janet Reno. Ms. Reno's statement is as follows:

To the voters of House District 9,

Our state faces many challenges, and we need strong, capable leaders who will do what is right for Floridians. Rick Minor is one of these leaders, and I highly recommend him as your next State Representative.

Rick has the intelligence, energy, and integrity that we deserve in our legislature. He is one of the hardest working, brightest members of the next generation of Florida Democrats.

For these reasons, I enthusiastically endorse Rick Minor for State House District 9. He exemplifies the values we need in our state legislature, and voters will be well served with him in the Florida House. You will be proud of him.

Sincerely,

Janet Reno

"As the first female U.S. Attorney General, Ms. Reno is one of Florida's greatest public servants and I'm honored to have her support" said Rick Minor.

Rick Minor has also been endorsed by the Florida State University College Democrats and the Tallahassee Community College Democrats. Additional endorsements are forthcoming.

Background

State House District 9 candidate Rick Minor has developed public policy for state and local governments as well as for three Florida gubernatorial campaigns and a presidential campaign. His broad business experience includes managing the financial operations for a small business and serving as a senior manager for a global business consulting firm.

As Chair of the Leon County Democratic Party from 2005-2009, Minor earned national recognition for the grassroots organization and voter outreach efforts that helped Leon County deliver the state's highest voter turnout during the last two general elections. Minor was also one of Florida's 27 Presidential Electors for Barack Obama in 2008.

A native Floridian, Minor has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business and has graduated from Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government with a Masters in Public Administration.
